REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Claims 1-22 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The semiconductor luminescent device as recited in the claims of the instant invention fail to be taught by the prior art cited of interest.

For claim 1, the prior art fails to teach the specific characteristic of the structure recited in the claims of the instant invention e.g. the non-volatile transistor device which has a deflectable nanotube switch, that is in part controlled by source and drain regions.

For claims 16 and 19, the prior art fails to teach the specific characteristic of the method of operating the structure recited in the claims of the instant invention e.g. the method of operating a non-volatile transistor device which has a deflectable nanotube switch, that is in part controlled by source and drain regions.
